

Massachusetts Association of Special Education Parent Advisory Councils

Associate Member Program

Masspac has revamped and expanded its Associate Member Program! The program is designed for agencies, organizations and companies that provide professional services or products to students and their families. Each level of associate membership provides your organization broad exposure to the statewide parent population and provides you with substantial discounts on all advertising. We have multiple venues for communication, publications and a dynamic network in which you can expand your exposure and parent outreach activities. Benefits accrue as you progress up the various member levels.

Partner with Masspac and help parents help kids! Associate members make a difference and help build a stronger state-wide organization and a more efficient operation to meet parent and council needs. You provide a valuable service and we want to provide you with the opportunity to showcase your organization. Membership also provides you with current information on what parents and councils are looking for and the issues they face regarding special education and disability topics.

All membership levels guarantee issues to the Masspac NewsWatch in which Associates are introduced and featured. Additional benefits and exposure depend on the level of membership specified in the program detail. Associate members are entitled to additional ad discounts in the newsletter and publications beyond what is specified in the benefits listing. This additional discount information can be found in the Media Kit's Advertising Program. Order your media kit now and learn more about your opportunities. Send your email request to: info@masspac.org.
